

AGENCIA TORREMOCHA

THE AUTHOR OF "LITTLE STORIES OF GREAT PERSONS" RECEIVED BY FRANCO.

=====

A consequence of the success got by the last literary work published by the young journalist and writer, Marino GOMEZ SANTOS, titled, "QUEEN VICTORIA EUGENIA, CLOSE", the Chief of Spanish State, General FRAN CO, has required his presence to congratulate him personally, for the success of his book.

Marino GOMEZ SANTOS, 26 years, made himself known in Spanish Press, with a series of literary reports titled, " Little Stories of Great Persons", which for seven years appeared in the Press, with interviews to celebrities of Sciences, Politics, Arts, Aristocracy, etc. The last of this reports was the interview with the Queen of Spain, Doña Victoria Eugenia, in her residence in Lausanne (Switzerland), which has been published in Spain, in a luxury volume in leather and gold, titled, "QUEEN VICTORIA EUGENIA, CLOSE".

With this recent publication, Marino GOMEZ SANTOS has reached the top of journalistic success in his full youth. The good style of his skillfull pen, has known how to choose in this difficult profession the clearest way of the literary report, avoiding, from the very beginning the easy and complicated journalistic report.

PHOTO: Here is the cover of the book recently published, where we seen Queen Doña Victoria Eugenia, widow of the King of Spain, Don Alfonso XIII, showing to us her own portrait.

PHOTO: Marino GOMEZ SANTOS, during his interview with the Chief of Spanish State, to whom he presented a volume of his book, in a leather and gold edition.

PHOTO: Marino GOMEZ SANTOS during his interview with the Queen of Spain, Doña Victoria Eugenia, in her residence in Lausanne, (Switzerland).

IGT/25.11.964.